2. There is a Panchayat Board for the village. It objects to the alienation of S.No.547-5 of Kudatini on the ground that it is on the landof Tigalappa temple. A copy of its resolution is submitted.

3. The Tahsildar,Bellary, who inspected the land reports that the site is about 20 yards from the temple on its northern side, that there is much vacant site left beyond the premises of the temple, that it is a part of the village site and not a part of the temple site as alleged by the Panchayat Board. It is also reported that the temple is not separately demarcated as such in the village site and that the temple has no inam lands. The objection of the Panchayat Board does not, therefore, deserve any consideration.

At the instance of the Asst. Regr. of Co-operative Societies, Bellary, the Collr. has recommended the alienation of 9 cents of village-site poramboke, subdivided as S.No. 547/5 of Kudathini village, Bellary taluk. The alienation is recommended in favour of the Kudathini Cumbly Weavers Purchase and Sales Society, Ltd Limited, for locating a shed for erecting fly shuttle looms machine and for keeping the office of the said Society. The society is a registered body and has agreed to pay the market value of the land Rs 9/- and also to pay the annual ground rent. It has agreed to abide by the necessary conditions of the alienation including those imposed when the market value is collected. The Proposal is Complete. There are no trees on the land The shed after its erection will be used by the entire community of weavers and as no private interest is involved the purpose may be considered as public

The Panchayat Board in the suggested objects to the alienation on the ground that the land in question is temple land. The taluk. after inspecting the site reports that the site is about 20 yards from the temple on its northern side, that there is much vacant site left beyond the premises of the temple & that the site is part of the village site and not part of the temple land, as alleged by the Panchayat Board. It is also reported that the temple has been is not separately demarcated as such in the village site and that the temple has no inam lands. In the circumstances the objections of the Panchayat Board may be over-ruled.

The Full Board may, therefore, sanction the alienation subject to the payment of the value of the land and of the appropriate ground rent.

At the instance of the Asst. Registrar Co-operative Societies, Bellary, the Collr. has recommended the alienation of 9 cents of village site poramboke, subdivided as S. No. 547/5 of Kudatini village, Bellary taluk. The alienation is recommended in favour of the Kudatini Bumbly Weavers' Purchase and Sale Society Ltd., for locating a shed for erecting fly shuttle looms machine and for keeping the office of the above Society. The Society is a registered body and has agreed to pay the market value of the land Rs 9/- and also to pay the annual ground rent. It has agreed to abide by the necessary conditions of alienation including those imposed when the market value is collected. There are no trees on the land. The shed after it erection will be used by the entire community of weavers and no private interest is involved. The proposal is complete and is within the sanctioning powers of the Full Board.

2. The Panchayat Board in the village objects to the alienation on the ground that the land in question is temple land. The DA after ~~collecting~~ inspecting the site, reports that the site is about 20 yards from the temple on its northern side, that there is much vacant space left beyond the premises of the temple and that the site is part of the village site and not part of the temple land, as alleged by the Panchayat Board. It is also reported that the temple is not separately demarcated as one in the village site and that the temple has no inam lands. The Tahsildar also reports that no festivals are conducted in the temple and that the ~~villa~~ people of the village will not be inconvenienced by the proposed alienation of the land. In the circumstances, the objection of the Panchayat Board, may be over-ruled.

The full Board may sanction the alienation of the land in favour of the Board subject to the payment of value of the land and the appropriate assessment. Orders.

The objections raised by the Panchayat Board may be overruled & the land alienated to the Corporation.
